

MALTA RESOURCES AUTHORITY

Decision of the 4th May 2011 issued in virtue of Malta Resources Authority Act (Cap. 423) to providers authorised by the Authority to import and, or wholesale LPG and / or authorised by the Authority to retail LPG, including retail of portable cylinders filled with LPG.

Whereas the Authority has received various complaints and has noted a number of public pronouncements relating to the alleged shortfall of available portable LPG cylinders in the national LPG market.

In view of the Authority's function to:

- regulate, monitor and keep under review all practices, operations and activities relating to energy;
- secure and regulate the development and maintenance of efficient systems in order to satisfy, as economically as possible, all reasonable demands for the provision of the resources,

the Authority is hereby issuing the following Decision in terms of which you are required:

1. to declare in writing (duly signed) within one (1) day from the date of the issue of this Decision, whether you have or have at any time had directly or indirectly in your possession or under your control any portable LPG cylinders originally provided directly or indirectly to consumers by any other authorised provider and to specify to the Authority the location of their storage or transfer;
2. to declare in writing (duly signed) within one (1) day from the date of issue of this Decision, whether you have sent or are in the process of sending any portable LPG cylinders, whether owned by yourself or by any other authorised provider/s, to a destination outside Malta and to specify the reasons and the circumstances of such transfer or export and which of the said cylinders were originally directly or indirectly provided by yourself or by any other authorised provider.
3. to return to the authorised importer and, or wholesaler of LPG who originally provided directly or indirectly to consumers, within five (5) working days from the date of the issue of this Decision, any portable LPG cylinders originally provided directly or indirectly to consumers by such authorised importer and, or wholesaler of LPG as declared to be directly or indirectly in your possession or under your control in terms of 1. above
4. to provide to the Authority within a further five (5) working days from the return mentioned in paragraph 3 a duly signed record attesting the return of the said cylinders in terms of paragraph 3 above. Such records should be counter-signed by all the authorised providers involved in the transaction.

5. Paragraph 1 to 4 above shall be complied with immediately and the implementation thereof shall not be obstructed or delayed by reason of any claim for the payment of a refund of a deposit or of a price of the gas cylinders which any authorised provider may have against any other authorised provider.

This decision shall only apply in respect of gas cylinders received directly or indirectly by the authorised providers from consumers.

The Authority reserves the right to impose an administrative fine upon any person who fails to comply with this Decision.
